

Incoterms 2000

DDU – Delivered Duty Unpaid (named place of destination)

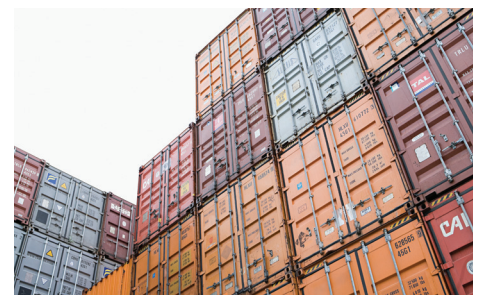

www.cole.ca

Under DDU, the seller undertakes to place the goods at the disposal of the buyer, not cleared for import or unloaded from the arriving means of transport, at a named place of destination.

- Transfer of risk
- Transfer of cost
- Transfer of risk and Transfer of cost

The seller delivers when the goods are ready for unloading from the arriving means of transport and are placed at the disposal of the buyer at a named destination place. The seller is not responsible for the import clearance or offloading from the arriving means of transport.

This term may be used for all modes of transport.

- Carriage to be arranged by the seller.
- Risk transfers from the seller to the buyer when the goods are placed at the disposal of the buyer at the named place of destination, not unloaded or cleared for import.
- Cost transfers from the seller to the buyer when the goods are placed at the disposal of the buyer at the named place of destination, not unloaded or cleared for import.

The buyer has the obligation to clear the goods for import, pay any import duty and carry out any import customs formalities.

For more information call 1-800-313-4281 or email info@cole.ca