FCA – Free Carrier (named place of delivery)

www.cole.ca

Under FCA, the seller arranges and pays for any pre-carriage up to a named place of delivery, unless otherwise agreed.

The seller delivers the goods, cleared for export, to the carrier or another person nominated by the buyer at the seller's premises or another named place.

It should be noted that the chosen place of delivery has an impact on the obligations of loading and unloading of the goods.

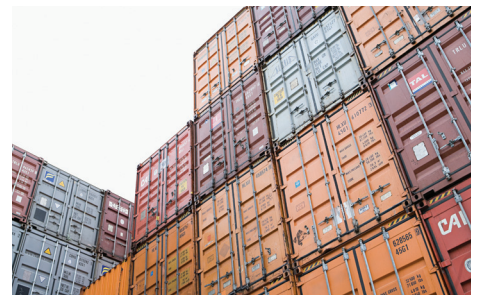

If the delivery occurs at the seller's premises, the seller is responsible for loading the goods on the means of transport provided by the buyer.

If the delivery occurs at any other place, the seller is not responsible for the unloading of the goods.

This term may be used for all modes of transportation.

- Carriage to be arranged by the buyer or by the seller on the buyer's behalf.
- Risk transfers from the seller to the buyer when the goods have been delivered to the carrier nominated by the buyer at the seller's premises or another named place.
- Cost transfers from the seller to the buyer when the goods have been delivered to the carrier nominated by the buyer at the seller's premises or another named place.

- Transfer of risk
- Transfer of cost
- Transfer of risk and Transfer of cost
