Customs, Freight and Warehousing Portals

Track your shipment instantly from anywhere, at any time

When someone's counting on you for the safe, on-time arrival of a shipment, you need to know where it is at any point along its journey. Having to contact your customs brokerage company to do this for you is a time-consuming hassle. And by the time you receive the information, it may no longer be accurate.

With Cole Portals track-and-trace solutions for Customs, Freight and Warehousing, you can securely monitor your active shipments from anywhere in the world. Internet access is all you need. This web-based tool also allows you to perform many other tasks related to your shipment: check the status of your shipment's release from Customs, check duty and applicable taxes on your imports, generate historical data reports and more. All you need is a Cole International account and a login ID. It's that easy.
