coleintl.com

Under DPU, the seller undertakes to place the goods at the disposal of the buyer, unloaded from the arriving means of transport at a named terminal at a named port or place of destination.

- Transfer of risk
- Transfer of cost
- Transfer of risk and Transfer of cost

The seller delivers when the goods are unloaded from the arriving means of transport and placed at the disposal of the buyer at a named terminal at the named port or place of destination. “Terminal” includes any place, whether covered or not, such as a quay (wharf), warehouse, container yard or road, rail or air cargo terminal. The seller is not responsible for the import clearance.

This term may be used for all modes of transport.

- Carriage to be arranged by the seller.
- Risk transfers from the seller to the buyer when the goods are placed at the disposal of the buyer, once unloaded at the named terminal and at the named port or place of destination.
- Cost transfers from the seller to the buyer when the goods are placed at the disposal of the buyer, once unloaded at the named terminal and at the named port or place of destination.

The buyer has the obligation to clear the goods for import, pay any import duty and carry out any import customs formalities
